Shades of Light

Buy on Shadesoflight.com

From flush mounts to wall sconces, chandeliers and pendant lights, Shades of Light carries a huge variety of figures in just about every style and trend you can think of. You'll find modern chandeliers that look like stars, Mid-Century Modern drums and brass and glass sconces for both indoor and outdoor lighting. Prices vary, with sconces starting at $21 going up well over $200, and chandeliers starting at $100 and topping out at more than $5,000.

Lamps Plus

Buy on Lampsplus.com

The largest and most egalitarian source for all things lighting, Lamps Plus does indeed carry more than just floor and table lamps. Frequent sales online mean you can often find a great deal on many of its sconces and mini pendants, as well as fun, artful shade wall lamps. We love that you can find a shade pattern you like and shop it in a variety of styles like pendants, sconces, and table lamps. Prices start under $25 and get up into the multiple thousands for major chandeliers.

Lumens

Buy on Lumens.com

Lumens is a great choice if you're searching for stylish name-brand lighting fixtures from brands and designers like Jonathan Adler, Kartell, Herman Miller, and Knoll. With so many high-end brands, Lumens tends to be on the pricier side. Expect prices to start around $200 and go up from there.

Lowe's

Buy on Lowe's

Like Home Depot and Bed, Bath and Beyond, Lowe's is a great resource for practical shoppers who want lighting fixtures that look cool, do their job and don't cost a fortune. Do-it-yourself home renovators will find all the cabinet lighting, recessed fixtures and track lighting they could dream of, and those who want to play more in the design space will find pendants, chandeliers and wall sconces to fit their vision. Lowe's has a great online feature as well that allows you to shop by trend inspiration like industrial, vintage and French country.

Arhaus

Buy on Arhaus.com

For exciting, interesting and unusual lighting fixtures, Arhaus should be at the top of your list. Pendant lights with shades woven from rattan or wire, elaborate brass sconces, and cut-crystal flush mount fixtures are all created in partnership with family-run businesses and using centuries-old techniques. Due to the handcrafted nature of their products, prices are on the higher end.

Bed, Bath and Beyond

Buy on Bed Bath & Beyond

Bed, Bath and Beyond is an amazing brick-and-mortar and online resource for all things home. They offer a great selection of basic lighting fixtures at digging will reveal all kinds of trendy and classic lighting fixture options for much less than some other home retailers.

Horchow

Buy on Horchow.com

Horchow has some of the most artful and interesting lighting fixtures you'll find. They have a particularly excellent selection of luxe sconces—sprays of gold metal, crystal waterfall designs, and antique-inspired deco pieces, which run the gamut from about $300 to nearly $2,000.

Vintage Hardware

Buy on Vintagehardware.com

If you're looking for a piece of truly vintage lighting, Vintage Hardware has a curated collection of fixtures that have been restored from the 1930s, 1960s and

Olde Good Things

Buy on Ogtstore.com

In the market for a 1970s crystal chandelier from the Waldorf Astoria? For $22,000, it can be yours, thanks to one of our favorite "window shopping" sites, Olde Good Things. Of course, you can find tons of more affordable vintage and antique lighting fixtures too, but you should still be prepared to pay for the high-quality and rare status of these pieces.
